

BOOK DONATION GUIDELINES

Book donations can be left in the book bin in the lobby of the Sharp Park Library. If you have too many books (over 1-2 bags), go to our email pfol94044@gmail.com to make an appointment for drop off. Please note that as of Oct. 25, 2022 we will not be accepting dvds or cds. We will continue to accept books on disc.

- Books should be clean
- Hard bound books preferably have covers, in condition that would tempt YOU to buy them.

We Do Not Accept

- Books in poor condition: this includes
 1. Books with significant highlighting, underlining, or notes
 2. Books that smell of tobacco
 3. Mildewed, moldy, smelly, water-damaged, badly worn, or yellowed items
 4. Children's books that are marked with someone's child's art work.
- Reference books over 3 years old
- Encyclopedia sets
- Legal statutes and casebooks
- Travel guides more than 5 years old
- Magazines, professional journals, catalogs, or directories
- Home burned cds or dvds
- Posters
- Tax preparation guide books
- Books published by Readers Digest or Bottom Line
- Hardbound American Heritage, Horizon, or National Geographic's magazines
- MHQ Military History Quarterly
- Zagat guides over 1 year old.
- Textbooks

Thank you for your cooperation in following these guidelines that greatly help us in managing our donations. Hooray for You! We resell your books at low prices to benefit the library.

If the box is full, or you have a large donation, please do not leave on the floor.

Go to our website pfol94044@gmail.com and leave your information. If you have books that don't meet our guidelines, there is a blue box for Discovery Books outside the gate at the Recology recycling yard, or take them to Goodwill at 2255 Gellert Blvd. (next to Safeway).
